al-Kāši’s Law of Cosines If $A$ is the angle at one vertex of a triangle, $a$ is the opposite side length, and $b$ and $c$ are the adjacent side lengths, then

$$a^2 = b^2 + c^2 - 2bc \cos A.$$